Dear Stamp Enthusiast:

Welcome to the Summer 2002 edition of USA Philatelic, the official source for current stamps and stamp products.

In this edition we have many interesting and exciting New Issues (pages 4-5) for you. We begin with a commemorative of the amazing Harry Houdini, escape artist and showman without equal. This new issue bears a hidden image and coincides with the 100th anniversary of the Society of American Magicians, over which Houdini presided for almost a decade. We also honor Irving Berlin, a prolific songwriter whose popular tunes reflected America's spirit, time and again.

Two of our new issues salute our country's natural wonders. Inside you'll find Longleaf Pine Forest, which honors our nation's wildlife as the newest entry in the Nature of America series. And a beautiful illustration by John James Audubon graces the latest installment of the American Treasures series.

We also have several other items to enhance your collection and make collecting more enjoyable: Take a look at the back cover, and you'll find our Stamp Decoder, essential to any collection with hidden indicia stamps (such as the new Houdini stamp). Our Packets (page 6) are an efficient way to get the stamps you've been looking for, all at once. And Personalized Stamped Envelopes (page 26) give you a chance to express yourself with every piece of mail you send.

We're always here to assist you with your order or answer any questions you may have. You can call 1 800 STAMP-24 (1 800 782-6724). Or fax us at 1-816-545-1212. You can also log on to www.usps.com and visit The Postal Store. Whatever your choice, we'll be happy to help.

Sincerely,

Catherine Caggiano

LONGLEAF PINE FOREST

New Issues

Houdini and Irving Berlin make their debut! They're joined by the season's other new arrivals: Longleaf Pine Forest, John James Audubon and American Toleware. Have a look and take your pick on pages 4-5.

Magic, music and the great outdoors.

A John James Audubon

The second issue in the American Treasures series, designed by Derry Noyes, features two species of North America's most beautiful birds: the Louisiana Tanager and the Scarlet Tanager. Bright and vibrant, the stamps' colors are the work of illustrator John James Audubon, whose books in the mid-1800s depicted American fauna interacting in their natural habitat.

D Space Achievement and Exploration Uncut Press Sheet

Space exploration has been about firsts, and this uncut press sheet celebrates that fact with four USPS firsts: the first time that five different souvenir sheets are printed on a single run; the first holographic images on stamps; the first circular stamp ever issued by the U.S. Postal Service; and our first pentagonal stamp.

STANDING ORDER PROGRAM

Want to pick and choose among commemoratives, definitives, special stamps, and more? Sign up for our Standing Order Program. It's the ideal way to set up or enhance your collecting program. Deposit requirement varies based on your selection of the stamps, formats and quantities offered.

Commemorative Panels bring your stamps and their history together in a beautiful collectible format. These limited-edition panels are made of 8½" x 11" extra-heavy paper and feature engraved reproductions of archival artwork, mint stamps in an acetate mount and narratives detailing the story behind the stamps' subjects. Panels are $6.00 each (except when face value exceeds $6.00, then the price will be determined by the actual value of the stamp). An advance deposit of $75 is required. You'll receive three to six shipments of panels throughout the year and you can keep your panels in good condition with our American Commemorative Binder, displayed on page 31.

SOUVENIR PAGES PROGRAM

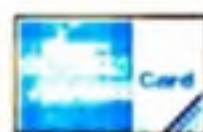

Have you ever wondered who decided on the colors of a stamp, or why a certain subject was chosen over another? Now you can get your stamps and the facts—with Souvenir Pages. For each stamp issued, you'll receive an 8" x 10½" color page with actual mint-condition stamp(s) affixed and cancelled with the official First Day of Issuance Cancellation. Each page features technical and historical information about the stamps and their designers. Only $2.00 per page unless the stamp's value exceeds that amount.
